the air of optimism surrounds the football picture at Rancho Alamogordo High School this year despite the fact the school is shuffling into the tough South League.

Leading the line, Bob Lampshire has left behind returning this year with a bleeding of juniors and the newcomers, fighting for varsity jobs, the football picture is looking up.

Lampshire, who will be senior next year (Gr. 11, Evanston (Oakwood) and Varsity Bonanza (up), says, "Our first year this year is a good one and is capable of playing with anyone. We do find inexperienced during the second and third units, but as the season goes on, we'll be kicking anything that gets into shape."

"We will know more about the future success of this team after next Monday's scrimmage at Milliken (Long Beach). From what we hear, they have veterans returning at every position and will have given a real test" and 170 pounds is playing for a defensive back and offensive end. Another is Ed Levens, a standback back with good speed.

Although the line isn't as strong as last year's (there were seven 200 pounders), the line is in good position, also speed and quickness, something lacking last year. Four tackles are fighting for starting berths. Ernest Brown (200) Walter Conkey (200), Harry Holmes (200) and Scott Ogden (200) are these battling for the spots.

Lampshire is unexcited in his praise for center Ray Brown, who is 6-2 and weighs in at 261 pounds.

"Brown will be one of the best centers in this area this year, according to Lampshire."

In the backfield, Glen Stewart has switched from quarterback to fullback and is fighting Jerry Wada for the signal calling jobs. Two returning halfbacks are Rich Stone and Lawton Latham while Mike Haisior, who called signals last year, has been switched

With 78 players on the field, including variety and junior varsity, the coaching staff has been able with the two units. But the staff has found a few good looking sophomores in the group.

Among these is Dave Fradette, a 6-1, 180-pound footballer, who is a pushing regular Mike Hairston for the first string spot. Another is Richard Vanderpool, who at 6-1

The scoring play ended a 21-yard drive that started on the Falcon seven, where Charles Lima recovered Jack Kewik's fumble. Newman added his second conversion and it proved to be the decider.

Boisa Grande had threatened to take the lead after the second half kickoff when halfback Wilson slipped 45 yards on the first play from scrimmage to the Valley 21. The Mals moved to the Valley five before Lima grabbed Selected by sports writers of daily newspapers covering the League, Jensen led all tabulators for the top honor after leading the Argonauts to their first Freeway League championship.

Garden Grove guard, team captain and All-League first-team member with Santa Ana Valley as well as other high school players, Jensen led the honor roll. Valley finished second to the Argos.

Two units were tackle Jim Paterson and guard Larry Wadsworth. Valley players named were George Hatfield, guard Rod Chittenden, tackle Bob Arneson and back Larry Niles. It was second straight year on the League team for Arneson. Paterson, a junior major, was on All-Sentinel League team for Garden Grove last year.

The game, a fired-up Hunting-Bear team capitalized on a fumble and converted it into the game-winning touchdown last night to upset Buena Park, 20-14.

Just when it appeared that the two Premier League clubs were headed for a good, 14-14, Oiler guard Mike Peters pounced on Buena Park's stymied right back, driving 73 yards in four plays. Jim Lawrence put the Coyotes on the scoreboard with a 54-yard sprint over right tackle.

Keith Noyak's PAT was good and knotted the count 7-7.

Not to be outdone, the Oilers led back at the Coyote 25 gave a repeat performance with an 84-yard pass to puntster Stallard to Dennis McIntyre, but it was called back on a penalty. Huntington moved ahead again late in the third quarter when Innesmen Jim Love and Ray Taylor led a pack of Oilers on the Coyote walk to block a punt. Love scooped up the pignskin at the 10-yard line and ran 26 yards to pay the price. Oursie's PAT and the Oilers' kick from 35 yards sent the game to last night, only just as the Oilers marched in the Oilers' defense minutes a crucial time.

The game had all the makings of a high scoring affair in the beginning. Huntington Beach, led by Stebbins' kickoff return for 60 yards, moved the ball 41 yards in nine plays for a first later after Peter Jackson. John Drexler also escaped on the fumble and scored the brief drive with a 37 Oiler 25.

Three blocked punts added in its own territory cost Newport Harbor a 24-0 loss.

tion Newport Harbor lost Santa Ana, 26-0, and Costa Mesa fell to powerful Anaheim.

Dick Hodges was top scorer for the Oilers as he tallied two touchdowns and an extra point. Larry Nishi accounted Haynes — Haynes to end Mike Conigan. It took the ball to the one.

A stalled crowd of some 4,700 watched the savage line play of Westminster cook the Vagueros for a minus 15 yards net rushing. The Vagueros picked up 48 yards in the air.
